ONLINE CITIZEN COMPLAINT FORM INITIATED

Public Announcement

Casper, Wyoming (September 12, 2017) – The Casper Police Department announces it now offers an online tool for citizens to formally submit a complaint against a member of the Casper Police Department.

The website address is: <https://casperpolice.org/complainant-form/>.

Citizens may also continue to use other mechanisms that are already in place, including, a phone call, email, or letter to the Chief of Police or Office of Professional Standards Lieutenant Shane Chaney. Their contact information can be found at <https://casperpolice.org/contact-form/>.

Citizens may also submit a paper copy complaint at the Records Section of the Casper Police Department, located at 201 North David Street in Casper.

All complaints are held in confidence and will be investigated in a timely manner.

The Department's leadership remains open and receptive to public comment and input on ways to make the Department even better. We take our duties and responsibilities to our citizens seriously, and we strive to ensure all Department members conduct ourselves according to our core values.
