SEXUAL ASSAULT PANEL DISCUSSION

Public Announcement

Casper, Wyoming (February 2, 2017) – The Casper Police Department, in concert with the Natrona County District Attorney’s Office, the Self Help Center, the Child Advocacy Program (CAP), and the Wyoming Medical Center (WMC), will hold a Sexual Assault Panel Discussion this month. Retired U.S. District Court Judge, Honorable William Downes, will moderate the event that will include discussions and panel input on the legal, investigative, prosecutorial, and victim service issues, challenges, and opportunities surrounding this critical topic. Panel members will include the District Attorney, the Chief of Police, and associated leaders from Self Help Center, CAP, and the WMC Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner (SANE) coordinator. The event is open to the public and the media.

A final announcement with the date, time, and location is forthcoming; however, the event is TENTATIVELY planned for Monday, February 13th from 7:00-8:30pm.

For questions or additional information, contact Detective John Hatcher at 307-235-7598 or jhatcher@casperwy.gov.
